Memorial Day Prayer & Potluck Supper

The Casa Chiara community invite you to prayer on Memorial Day, Monday, May 31st at 4:00 pm, followed by a potluck supper. Since the weather is forecast to be cool and wet that day, Sr. Liz Fuhr will lead us in prayer (see note below) in the Casa Chiara chapel (5314 Columbine Road, Denver, CO 80221) instead of the cemetery. Let Sr. Sue know if you will come so we can prepare accordingly, and what you would like to bring, or not, for the potluck. YUM! ☺
Sr. Sue Artone-Fricke

Note from Sr. Liz Fuhr in preparation for prayer: Memorial Day in our hemisphere is the time when many seeds that have been freshly planted sprout new life. In the Arabic tradition hubb means love and habb means seed.

“Love is a kind of seed, and that seeds are natural symbols of love ...
A seed is small but rich with possibility, like love, which is as humble as it is powerful.”

Pir Zia Inanyat-Khab, Sacred Seed.

The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed.

Luke 13:18

Sr. Liz would like us to reflect on the “seeds of love” that have been sown by the lives of our sisters and associates who have passed since Memorial day 2020 till Memorial Day 2021. By remembering and memorializing their lives may we help these sown seeds flourish: (also see attached lists)
